As a tribute to ten vintages of Idiom wines, the Bottega family has unveiled a new venue located at the top of their mountain vineyards on the outskirts of Somerset West near Sir Lowry's Pass. Travellers heading over the pass on the N2, going or coming from Cape Town, can look forward to a breathtaking gourmet pit-stop, as the new Idiom Restaurant & Wine Tasting Centre flaunts panoramic views of the majestic Helderberg basin and the full expanse of the Cape Peninsula, from Table Mountain to Cape Point, with False Bay in the foreground.

Keep your eyes peeled as this Italian family also plans to host an Italian fair soon.

When: The centre will official open in June 2016, and the restaurant will be open from 10:00 to 17:00 on Wednesdays to Sundays
